and Patel Bommé Gowda both applied for the land alluded to, but the villagers having objected to the Grant of the Dasékhasta, the Putta was made out in the name of the Temple Gods and delivered to the first applicant Javaré Gowda, as desired by the villagers, on Condition of his paying Kandaya keeping the buildings in good order and Continuing worship as per Mutchalika executed by him. Javaré Gowda Cultivated the land and enjoyed the produce but he neglected to act up to the terms of his Mutchalika_ The villagers then Complained of the non-pulfilment of the terms of the Mutchalika_ The land was Consequently put in the possession of the Pujari and he now enjoys the produce, paying the Kandayam thereof and performing the Puja.

3. The villagers pray therefore that the Jodi Isuam may be restored and the
